EXPERIENCE

FEBRUARY 2016 — PRESENT

Art Director, Advance Local. New York, NY

I'm an award winning Art Director, Illustrator and Graphic Designer. I work with the websites and print products of Advance Local, including MLive.com, Cleveland.com, the Cleveland Plain Dealer, The Oregonian, OregonLive.com and many more.

- Redesigned all Advance Online newspaper Apps. 2024-2025:
- Developed interactive templating for production of Online Newspaper Marketing materials (print, email, digital and animated)
- Produced multiple interactive and animated digital and print components for Journalism.

OCTOBER 2011 — FEBRUARY 2016

Creative Director, Gannett. Des Moines, IA

I started with Gannett at the Louisville Design Studio as Features Assistant Team Leader where I coached the Features Content and Design producers to work collaboratively and proactively. In March, 2012, I was offered the opportunity to Lead the new Wisconsin Team in Des Moines. I oversaw the design and production of 12 Daily newspapers and up to 14 Designers. In 2014, I was promoted to Creative Director over the entire studio with five Team Leaders and about 120 designers reporting to me.

- Managed and coached Design studio staff in excess of 120.
- Worked closely with Editors and Publishers to integrate them into a new remote platform.

MARCH 2007 — OCTOBER 2011

Make-up Editor (Features,) The Blade. Toledo, OH

As Make-up Editor at The Blade, I designed and directed the design, layout and production of our daily and Sunday Features sections. I worked to stretch The Blade's Features design to become more innovative, design forward, and engaging.

- Produced multiple award-winning layouts and illustrations.
- Won Ohio Society of Professional Journalists Best Designer two years in a row.
- Redesigned and conceptualized branded print section completed within a single week.

DECEMBER 2006 — MARCH 2007

Design Editor, Toledo Free Press. Toledo, OH

- Oversaw the entire production process, including editorial and advertising design and layout.
- Completed thorough redesign that streamlined the font and color palette.
- During my tenure, the circulation increased from approximately 15,000 weekly to over 120,000 weekly distribution, and four major advertisers signed contracts with the publication.

JULY 2006 TO NOVEMBER 2006

Presentation Editor, Green Bay Press Gazette. Green Bay, WI

- Supervised staff of three designers and oversaw the daily design and presentation executed by 15 paginators.
- Lead the complete redesign of the paper that took place in July of 2006, creating flexible, but easy to use templates, style sheets and color palettes that would work within an Atex Prestige environment for PC's and Mac's.
- I advocated for graphics and layout opportunities, and oversee design production in the daily and Sunday newspaper as well as several magazines and tabs.

DECEMBER 1999 TO JUNE 2006

Graphic Designer, The Blade. Toledo, OH

As a Graphic Designer in The Blade's Marketing and then Editorial Departments, I designed many maps, graphs, and infographics as well as hundreds of feature pages and illustrations.

- Designer on the series, 'Buried Secrets, Brutal Truths' for which we won the 2003 Pulitzer for Investigative Journalism and I designed the Press kit sent to major media outlets.
- Lead designer for The Blade's 2005 Pulitzer prize nominated ongoing investigation of the State of Ohio's Bureau of Workers Compensation funds mismanagement; working closely with several editors and writers to produce graphics and illustrations.
